Dear Friends,

Over the last year, we have faced an unprecedented challenge: a global pandemic that has affected millions of people around the world, including here at home. Throughout it all, Canadians have proven to be strong and resilient. There's no other way to say it, 2020 was not an easy year. Mississauga-Erin Mills has seen its fair share of challenges, but we've risen to face them each and every time. Throughout this pandemic, we've seen neighbours helping neighbours, small businesses helping communities, and front-line workers helping to keep our families healthy and safe.

Our Liberal government will continue to make sure no Canadian is left behind. With historic programs like the Canada Emergency Response Benefit, the new Canada Recovery Benefit, and the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy, we've helped protect jobs and ensure Canadian people and businesses can continue to pay their bills in this crisis. As we continue to address the impacts of COVID-19, our government is actively procuring vaccines, treatments, and PPE supplies to protect Canadians.

As we move towards Canada's economic recovery, we have a unique opportunity to build back better and change the systemic issues in our society that have been exposed by the pandemic. We have the chance to invest in the kind of country and community we want to see. A country that takes action on climate change and plastic pollution. A country that recognizes and addresses the challenges faced by racialized Canadians. A country that will continue to walk the path of reconciliation with Indigenous communities. And one that invests in its people's health and well-being through mental health supports and programs such as universal pharmacare.

Despite everything, we've done great work in 2020, but we're not out of the woods yet. A lot of hard work remains to be done, but I know Mississauga-Erin Mills is up to the task. It's an honour to represent our community of Mississauga-Erin Mills, and I'm proud of the fantastic accomplishments we've achieved together.

Wishing you a happy and healthy 2021. Thank you for your ongoing support.
